Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Tuesday, marking a new era of collaboration and opportunity for students and professionals.

The agreement was signed as part of IUB's university-wide industry-academia collaboration initiatives. It enables IUB students and graduates to benefit from course exemptions and admission scholarships when pursuing the CMA programme at ICMAB, according to a media release.

The collaboration extends beyond these benefits, with ICMAB and IUB committing to work together in areas that align with their core business interests.

During the ceremony, which was held at the Trustee Lounge on the IUB campus, IUB Vice Chancellor Tanweer Hasan, PhD, expressed his gratitude towards ICMAB and encouraged faculty members to nurture this partnership through innovative activities.

ICMAB Vice President Mr Mahtab Uddin Ahmed lauded IUB for their cooperation and emphasised the partnership's role in promoting excellence, innovation, and advancement in the accounting profession.
